New Year's Eve Dance

Save the date of December 31st for our New Year's Eve Dance! The schedule is: 6:00pm Dinner (provided by Lebanon Square Circlers), 6:30pm Pre-Rounds, 7:00pm Mainstream with every third tip Plus, Ball Drop at 9:00pm (East Coast). ## Guess Who?

Last issue's Guess Who was Kathleen Coddington, whose favorite instrument is the viola, who drives for Meals on Wheels, and loves to quilt and loves "little birdies." This month's Guess Who used to be a hippie, went on a date with Johnny Carson, and has a Master's degree in Clinical Psychology. Who am I?

Meet our Board!

Our club Vice President is Frank Cawrse, who just retired from Pape Machinery last spring. Frank started square dance lessons in 1986, was our Area Delegate for 29 years, our Vice President for 13 years, and is our longest (but not eldest!) club member. Frank and Marianne have been married for 36 years.

Late Bloomers

Charlotte Jeskey hosts a free square dance workshop every Tuesday from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the Lebanon Senior Center. 1:00pm is for everyone, including new dancers, and 2:00pm is for dancers who already know Mainstream.

Experienced Clothing Coordinators Needed

A new Experienced Clothing Coordinator is needed as Grace will be moving within a year. She would like to train the Coordinators at the New Dancers Dance and Strawberry Festival, so volunteers are urgently needed. Grace will remain with the club and will continue to hold the position of Area Delegate. Please contact Grace to help with New Dancer Dance - Dec. 8th even if you are not wanting to be an Experienced Clothing Coordinator at 503-508-4442.
