Punch Cards

Lebanon Square Circlers are now offering a pre-pay punch card for entry into our dances. Tired of looking for spare change, or remembering to stop off at the ATM for every dance? Soon you will be able to purchase your attendance ahead of time with this wallet sized card. Strictly voluntary, you will be able to purchase from one to ten dances in advance and have the card conveniently with you. This card will not only alleviate your cash-flow problems, it will lock in your dance fees for the life of the card, even if our rates go up! Also a great idea as a gift to your dancing friends or those you would like to encourage. These punch cards will soon be available at our entry table. We encourage you to give them a try.

Guess Who?

Last issue's Guess Who was Mike Berkey who had a terrible log truck accident where the truck went end over end three times and lived to tell about it, met his spouse when he was six years old and has owned six different businesses. This Month's Guess Who harvested squash, filberts, strawberries, beans, raspberries, hay, rye grass, wheat and fescue, and is still a literal farmer today. At age 14, she illegally accomplished the following: Flagged traffic on Hwy 20 with a handkerchief, helped burn ryegrass fields, drove the family car and go-carts on the road, and hauled grain down highway 20 in a 1940 Ford 1-1/2 ton farm truck. Who am I?

Meet our Board!

Meet our Treasurer, Barb Shafer! She says: "I enjoy being the treasurer of the club. It keeps me involved and active in the club. My career was eclectic, creating a non-profit center, Rainbow Children's Center, in the early 1980's and expanding it to Sweet Home. I still count many of the parents and children from those days as some of my best friends. I spent many years working at LBCC, first as a parenting coach for families in crisis, managing visits and supervising, guiding parents during visits with their children who were in foster care. Later I was the employment coordinator for the chronically unemployed. And yes, I truly enjoy still knowing some of those people all these years later, working in jobs that interest them. Some of them are now supervisors and very responsible citizens. I completed my career teaching G.E.D. That was my favorite job of all. So many of those students were my personal heroes as they overcame the difficulties of their childhood and forged ahead. My first date with my husband, Fred, was a square dance lesson. It's been a terrific ride!"

Experienced Clothing Volunteers Needed

A new Experienced Clothing Coordinator is needed as Grace will be moving within a year. She would like to train the Coordinators before the Strawberry Festival, so volunteers are urgently needed. Grace will remain with the club and will continue to hold the position of Area Delegate. Please contact Grace to help at 503-508-4442.
